Our own "Ensor Croquette"

James Ensor is known to have loved the classic Escoffier preparation 'Sole à l'Ostendaise': a white wine sauce with gravy of mussels and gray shrimps, served with a solid white fish. As a responsible NorthSeaChef we find haddock these days a perfect substitute for the sole. Tom & Christine, our own 'Cuisiniers dangereux', unleashed their creativity on this.

'Les Cuisiniers Dangereux'

But there is more that links Le Bassin to Ensor.

In this year, 2024, in which James Ensor has died for 75 years, we went on a quest and found the unprecedented story of the steam trawler '0.301 James Ensor', built at Béliards. That Iceland boat existed before the Amandine and was moored in the 'Bassing'... which is close to the current business 'Le Bassin'.

There were also 2 gendarmes who fell in that 'Bassing', victims after skirmishes between fishermen and gendarmes.

Our chefs have created a nice reference to that steam trawler on your plate of Ensor croquette(s).

Let yourself be surprised! Enjoy.
